August 2, 1973

Certain Cultural Aspects of Afghan Coup

WGS:

PRINT, AF

E.O. 11652: N/A

Set out below is an internal Embassy memorandum which reveals insights to the July 17, 1973, coup d'etat which toppled King Zahir after 40 years on the Afghan Throne. Since telephones are always disconnected in such situations, those Embassies which have the dubious privilege of having their own radio net will find value in the report below which we know could be duplicated several times over.

SUBJECT: Suggested SITREP Seven to tune of 'Said the Shepherd Boy to the Mighty King'

1. (Reference)
Said the DCM to Ambassador -
Do you hear what I hear?
Do you hear what I hear?
A King, a King, ousted in the night
Said to be to public delight -
Said to be to public delight.
2. Said Paul Kelly on the Bravo net -
Do you hear what I hear?
Do you hear what I hear?
A new curfew - said by Charlie Geo
Is confirmed by bachas tonight
Is confirmed by bachas tonight.

3. Bravo nine's words, spreading o'er
What is that that I hear?
What is this that I hear?
A rumor rife, spreading through the night
Are there any roadblocks in sight?
Are there any roadblocks in sight?
4. All the while Radio Afghanistan
Airs for Pashtun ears
Airs for Pashtun ears
A soap opera, fraught with joy and fright
But saying naught of curfew tonight
Saying naught of curfew tonight.
5. Meantime, in comes word from Bravo ten
Forget the plans for beer
Forget the plans for beer
We've found some wine for dinner in the night
So, Bravo ten come here and sit tight
Bravo ten come here and sit tight.
6. In early morn Bravo nine's words crackle clear
I detect a leak here
I detect a leak here
My pool, my pool, has surely runneth o'er
Water's seeping under my door
Water's seeping under my door.
7. That's the substance of our sitrep sever
That's the atmosphere
That's the atmosphere
Our assessment is that things look bright
As we cease reporting tonight
As we cease reporting tonight."
